

August 4, 2020

The Republic of Argentina and representatives of the Ad Hoc Group of Argentine Bondholders, the Argentina Creditor Committee and the Exchange Bondholder Group and certain other significant holders (collectively, the “Supporting Creditors”) today have reached an agreement that will allow members of the creditor groups and such other holders to support Argentina’s debt restructuring proposal and grant Argentina significant debt relief. Pursuant to the agreement, Argentina will adjust certain of the payment dates contemplated for the New Bonds set forth in its July 6, 2020 invitation (the “Invitation”), without increasing the aggregate amount of principal payments or interest payments that Argentina commits to make while enhancing the value of the proposal for the creditor community. Specifically:

(i) the payment dates on the New Bonds will be January 9 and July 9 instead of March 4 and September 4;

(ii) the New Bonds to be delivered as Accrued Interest Consideration and Additional Consent Consideration will begin amortizing in January 2025 and mature in July 2029;

(iii) the New USD and EUR 2030 Bonds will begin amortizing in July 2024 and mature in July 2030, with the first installment being in an amount equivalent to one half of each remaining installment; and

(iv) the New USD 2038 Bonds and New Euro 2038 Bonds to be issued in exchange for existing discount bonds will begin amortizing in July 2027 and mature in January 2038.

As contemplated in the Invitation, holders of Euro and CHF-denominated bonds will be allowed to tender their bonds for U.S. dollar-denominated New Bonds, based on the Euro/CHF/USD price as shown on the FXC page displayed on the Bloomberg Pricing Monitor, or by any recognized quotation source selected by the dealer managers in their sole and absolute discretion if Bloomberg is not available or is manifestly erroneous, at or around 12:00 p.m. (noon) New York City time on August 6, 2020. Accordingly, the issuance caps on U.S. dollar-denominated New Bonds will be increased to reflect the difference in the exchange rates between the original Invitation and the revised Invitation. In addition, the Acceptance Priority Procedures in the Invitation will be revised to provide that (i) if holders of Euro Bonds due 2022 or 2023 and CHF 2020 Bonds elect New USD 2030 Bonds, an equal principal amount of New USD 2030 Bonds (in excess of the currently applicable Bond Cap for the New USD 2030 Bonds) will become available to be issued to holders of USD Bonds due 2026-2036 and, in such case, the aggregate principal amount of New Euro 2030 Bonds available to be issued to holders of Euro Bonds due 2027-2028 will be decreased ratably, and (ii) if holders of Euro Bonds due 2027-2028 elect New USD 2035 Bonds, an equal principal amount of New USD 2035 Bonds (in excess of the currently applicable Bond Cap for the New USD 2035 Bonds) will become available to be issued to holders of USD Bonds due 2046-2117 and, in such case, the aggregate principal amount of New Euro 2035 Bonds available to be issued to holders of Euro Bonds due 2047 will be decreased ratably.

Argentina will adjust certain aspects of the collective action clauses in its New Bond documentation to address proposals submitted by members of the creditor community that seek to strengthen the effectiveness of the contractual framework as a basis for the resolution of sovereign debt restructurings upon the support for such adjustments of the broader international community. The agreement of the Supporting Creditors to the restructuring terms above is expressly subject to Argentina's New Bond documentation including these proposed adjustments. Finally, Argentina will not bear any expenses of the Supporting Creditors in connection with the transaction, which will be covered solely out of bondholder entitlements received pursuant to the revised Invitation, as will be set forth in the final documentation.

To give effect to the agreement Argentina is hereby extending the expiration date of its Invitation from 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 4, 2020, to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on August 24, 2020 (the "Expiration"), unless further extended or early terminated. Accordingly, assuming that the Republic, among other things, does not further extend the Expiration or terminate the Invitation early, the Invitation Period (as defined in the Prospectus Supplement) is extended through the new Expiration, the Results Announcement Date (as defined in the Prospectus Supplement) shall be on August 28, 2020 or as early as practicable thereafter, and the Execution Date, the Effective Date and the Settlement Date, each as defined in the Prospectus Supplement, shall remain on September 4, 2020 or as early as practicable thereafter.
